

Company Overview

Negarín Trading Company is the largest manufacturer and exporter of detergents in the Middle East specializing in this field with the aim of developing the quantity and quality of products. Using new equipment and technologies and having obtained licenses and authorizations, this company observes international standards and is ready to serve customers in the Middle East, providing a wide range of products with new formulations. Utilizing international chemists and microbiologists in quality control laboratories, as a suitable tool to advance its research goals, Negarín Trading Company has managed to produce unique compounds with high cleansing power taking advantage of its technical and specialized team.

Business Description

Detergents are among the most practical products to improve hygiene in the community, which eliminate all contaminants and fats from different objects, making the surface clean and shiny. At present, a new type of detergent called enzymatic detergent is produced that, unlike old detergents, lacks phosphate. Phosphates used in detergents are very dangerous to the environment, so most detergents are produced without this chemical. As human societies progress, the demand for these products has increased in the world, with China and India ranking first in terms of demand and production in Asia-Pacific. Currently, Negarin Trading Company has attracted the attention of many countries at an international level thanks to the superior quality and efficiency of its products. Relying on specialist and expert personnel, Negarin company produces a variety of detergents following international standards in high volume and circulation and offers in the Middle East. Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Azerbaijan, Turkey and Uzbekistan are the most important export destinations for Negarin products.
